Independent Committee in relation to the fire at Wang Fuk Court in Tai Po

Invitation to the Public and Relevant Organisations to Provide Information (Second Round)

The Chief Executive has established an Independent Committee in relation to the fire at Wang Fuk Court in Tai Po to review the causes and related issues of the fire, and to make recommendations to prevent similar incidents from occurring again. The Committee formally commenced its work on December 19, 2025, and the Evidential Hearing on March 19, 2026 to hear the opening remarks from the legal teams and oral evidence from witnesses (including oral evidence from Wang Fuk Court residents).

Invitation to Provide Information

To review the incident and related issues more comprehensively from multiple perspectives, the Committee invites members of the public and relevant organisations to provide information by completing this form from 10a.m., March 31, 2026 to 11:59p.m., April 14, 2026, on whether there were systemic problems such as undue connected interests, conflicts of roles, or improper collusion across all stages of large-scale building maintenance and renovation works (not limited to Wang Fuk Court in Tai Po); and whether bid-rigging corruption, or irregularities were involved in the tendering process of the relevant works.

Anonymous Submissions

The Committee accepts anonymous submissions to facilitate the provision of information by persons with relevant knowledge. However, anonymous submissions must be accompanied by specific details and/or substantive evidence (for example, tender documents, contracts, meeting minutes, screenshots of communications or other supporting materials).

Submission Methods

You may submit the completed form to the Committee via the following methods:
